A BILL

To require the Secretary of the Treasury to mint a coin in commemoration of the 100th anniversary of the establishment of Negro Leagues baseball.

1       Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2       tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3       SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

4       This Act may be cited as the “Negro Leagues Base-
5       ball Centennial Commemorative Coin Act”.

6       SEC. 2. FINDINGS.

7       The Congress finds the following:

8           (1) The year 2020 marks the 100th anniversary
9           of the establishment of the Negro National League,

1       a professional baseball league formed in response to
2       African-American players being banned from the
3       major leagues.

4                 (2) On February 13, 1920, Andrew "Rube"
5       Foster convened a meeting of 8 independent Afri-
6       can-American baseball team owners at the Paseo
7       YMCA in Kansas City, Missouri, to form a "league
8       of their own," establishing the Negro National
9       League, the first successful, organized professional
10      African-American baseball league in the United 11      States.

12                 (3) Soon, additional leagues formed in eastern
13      and southern States.

14                 (4) The Negro Leagues would operate for 40
15      years until 1960.

16                 (5) The story of the Negro Leagues is a story
17      of strong-willed athletes who forged a glorious his-
18      tory in the midst of an inglorious era of segregation
19      in the United States.

20                 (6) The passion of the Negro Leagues players
21      for the "National Pastime" would not only change
22      the game, but also the United States.

23                 (7) The creation of the Negro Leagues provided
24      a playing field for more than 2,600 African-Amer-

1       ican and Hispanic baseball players to showcase their
2       world-class baseball abilities.

3                     (8) The Negro Leagues introduced an exciting
4       brand of baseball that was in stark contrast to 5       Major League Baseball.

6                     (9) A fast, aggressive style of play attracted
7       black and white fans who sat together to watch
8       those games at a time when it was virtually unheard
9       of to interact socially in such a way.

10                  (10) Negro Leagues baseball would become a
11       catalyst for economic development across the United
12       States in major urban centers such as Kansas City,
13       St. Louis, New York, Memphis, Baltimore, Wash-
14       ington, DC, Chicago, and Atlanta.

15                  (11) The Negro Leagues pioneered “Night
16       Baseball” in 1930, 5 years before Major League
17       Baseball, and would introduce game-changing innova-
18       tions such as shin guards and the batting helmet.

19                  (12) The Negro Leagues helped make the Na-
20       tional Pastime a global game as players from the 21       Negro Leagues—

22                     (A) were the first people from the United
23       States to play in many Spanish-speaking coun-
24       tries; and

(B) introduced professional baseball to the Japanese in 1927.

(13) Jackie Robinson, a military veteran and former member of the Negro Leagues' Kansas City Monarchs, would break Major League Baseball's color barrier on April 15, 1947, with the Brooklyn Dodgers, paving the way for other African-American and Hispanic baseball players.

9                   (14) The Negro Leagues were born out of seg-
10                 regation yet would become a driving force for social
11                 change in the United States.

(16) The Negro Leagues Baseball Museum was established in Kansas City, Missouri, in 1990—

18 (A) to save from extinction a precious
19 piece of Americana and baseball history; and

(B) to use the many life lessons of the powerful story of triumph over adversity of Negro Leagues players to promote tolerance, diversity, and inclusion.

1       recognizing it as "America's Home" for Negro
2       Leagues baseball history.
